Profile

Living in Hiroshima, Japan, female business owner.

With the wish that everyone she meets will be happy, have been wearing pink clothes 365 days a year for 10 years.

Love the most pink in the world
Google search first place "Pink Scaho (* shacho means president)".

She is keen on activities to create peace at home and abroad, in order to realize world peace by sharing the wish to create peace instead of anti-war.

Hello everyone.

I am the "Pink Shacho" who loves the most pink in the world, Taeko Tada. Thank you for your warm support.

In color therapy, it has been demonstrated that people become happy when they see pink.

I am 10 years wearing pink clothes 365 days, with the wish that everyone I meets will be happy from the day when we challenged Guinness record 7with the world's largest large crane in 2009.

My hometown is Hiroshima. I wanted to hold the World Peace Conference there and visited the world countries such as USA, Hawaii, Russia, France, Italy, Morocco, Dubai, India. In the countries I visited, a lot of people looked at my pink clothes and told me with a full smile "I love pink too!"

I was impressed that "Pink" has the power to make people happy across countries, community, religions and cultures.

I would like to increase happiness to the world with the power of pink, and I established "Pink Day" on April 4 and was registered with the Japan Anniversary Association.

I wished you to be happy. It is a day to give pink presents "for (4) you" and share the happiness.

This year I established "Pink.Club", the community for people who love pink. Through Pink, we will increase happiness to the world and realize world peace.

I would be glad if you agreed and joined.

Signature activities conducted to deliver the message of "love and peace" from Hiroshima to the world through the Olympics. We collected 603,186 signatures and were able to submit it to the mayor of Hiroshima.

Published the original "The Hiroshima Miracle" (Japanese / English)

Every year 300,000 children visit Hiroshima for peace learning. In order to create world peace, it is important to convey not only the magnitude of atomic bomb damage but also the history of reconstruction and to learn how to create peace, not anti-war.

Based on 70 years after World War II, based on the true story of Hiroshima's revival, we published a cartoon "The Hiroshima Miracle" that conveys the importance of peace and the heart of forgive. We offer free lending to educational institutions up to 1,000 books. It is used for peace learning in Japan and overseas. In addition, we also hold lectures on the theme of "The Hiroshima Miracle" at various places.

Learn how to create world peace from Hiroshima reconstruction “The Hiroshima Miracle” Author Taeko Tada

“The Hiroshima Miracle”(English version, Japanese version)

This cartoon was created based on the true story of "reconstruction" for the purpose of becoming an opportunity for children to learn how to create world peace. Drew the forgive* heart of the Hiroshima women who turned to the front without hate and achieved a remarkable recovery, even in a catastrophic situation.

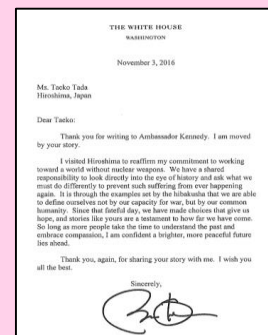

* Forgive means to forgive sins and mistakes with a caring heart.

It has been evaluated as a form of positive peace education different from before, such as being used in all 72 elementary and junior high schools in Shimonoseki City, Yamaguchi Prefecture, Japan.

Nobel Peace Prize Winner and The 44th President of the United States President Barack Obama is moved by reading "The Hiroshima Miracle"!

I am moved by your story. I visited Hiroshima to reaffirm my commitment to working toward a world without nuclear weapons. We have a shared responsibility to look directly into the eye of history and ask what we must do differently to prevent such suffering from ever happening again. It is through the examples set by the hibakusha that we are able to define ourselves not by our capacity for war, but by our common humanity. Since that fateful day, we have made choices that give us hope, and stories like yours are a testament to how far we have come. So long as more people take the time to understand the past and embrace compassion, I am confident a brighter, more peaceful future lies ahead. Thank you, again, for sharing your story with me. Expand the circle of raising children who create peace

Taeko Tada, the original author of "The Hiroshima Miracle"

My grandmother died in the atomic bomb on the day of the atomic bombing. She was 22 years old. My mother and my great-grandmother were bombed 1.5 km from the hypocenter, but their life was saved miraculously. They lost house, property, everything. However, my great-grandmother, who was a female entrepreneur, continued to contribute to the community and regenerating her business while raising my mother. Seeing my great-grandmother, I wanted to be an entrepreneur who would help society.

Childhood author and her great grandmother

When I was 10 years old, I got into a brain hemorrhage by a traffic accident and wandered the boundary of life and death. However, I was discharged in two weeks miraculously. I have decided to aim for an entrepreneur who can help society in order to express my gratitude for life.

When I was a high school student, I volunteered to convey peace to Japanese and foreign students visiting the Peace Memorial Park. At that time, I wondered if peace education in Hiroshima would only convey the magnitude of the atomic bomb damage. In order to create world peace, I conveyed not only the magnitude of the atomic bomb damage but also the historical facts of the reconstruction, and realized the importance of learning how to create peace instead of anti-war.

I made the original publication of the cartoon "The Hiroshima Miracle" based on the true tale of my great-grandmother, my grandmother and my mother. While learning with the children, a sixth grader boy gave me an impression. "It's not important to stop the war. We do not start the war. " I read this, and have my heart touched. With the desire to raise as many children with this kind of thought as one, "The Hiroshima Miracle" is able to lending free and activities to raise children who create peace are extended. It is an honor to join and support the activities and support. May the future of children be a world full of love and peace.

Impression of elementary school teacher

Easy to understand because it is a cartoon!

< Female teacher, Ehime Prefecture >

Before going on a school trip,
I learned about Hiroshima and the atomic bomb, with children.
I thought that touching people's lives after the war through restoration would be a very good learning for the children!

Instead of telling children of elementary school children only the miserable image,
I will use "The Hiroshima Miracle" in schools so that the strength of people after the war will be conveyed.

Use as advance learning of school travel < Male teacher, Okayama Prefecture >

I thought that I would like to teach classes to connect the classroom and Hiroshima, so I used this cartoon.
The hurdles at the beginning of the reading of children were low.
We used it as a advance learning of school trip to Hiroshima, together with Japanese language teaching materials
"Fort of Peace".
Compared to the usual years, they were working on learning subjectively.
Also, at school trip, we also attended the original authors themselves.
I think that they were impressive.

Children who read "The Hiroshima Miracle" - Impressions from 10 to 14 years old

I want to have a positive and strong heart

私は、この本を読んで、生きる大切さについて知りました。私は、広島に原爆が落とされたことを知ってアメリカをばくんでいました。なのに、広島の人達は、アメリカのことをにくむことなく、前向きで、一生懸命生きていました。また、強い心をもって生きることに、心を至りました。その場面を見て、私は、国や人をにくむより、強い心をもって一生懸命生きることが大切なんだな、と思いました。また、この本を読んで、「前に向かって歩きなさい。憎しみという荷物を背負っていたら、その分重くて、前に向かって歩けないからね」という言葉に感動しました。その言葉から、強い心を持つているんだな、と思いました。ずっと憎しみ続けても意味がない、未来をみている、と思っていたんだと思います。今は、とても平和だけれど、これから戦争が起こるかもしれない。広島みたいに原爆が落とされたりして、みんなをくんでしまうかもしれない。そんな時のために、私は、広島の人みたいに前向きで強い心をもたれています。そして、人を憎んだりせず、これから自分は、どうしていくべきか、どうすればいいのかわきさんと考え生きていきたいです。

We will build peace, not someone

生きていることの大切さが伝わりました。そして、ヒロシマのこじがよく分かりました。私は、ひばくした人々が一生懸命生きようとしているのが伝わりました。私は、命がとて大切なこと、原子爆弾で、たくさんの人々が命を落としたことが伝わりました。平和なことがどれほど尊いものなのか分かりました。誰かが平和を築いていくのではなく、私たちが築いていくのだな、と思いました。

I hate war, but not hate people and nations

私が心に残ったところは、「戦争は憎んでも、人や国は憎んではいけない」というところです。人や国を憎んでも始まらないという意味にとれて、とても感動しました。私たち6年生は、修学旅行で長崎に行きました。長崎は、広島と同じく原子爆弾を落とされた場所です。原爆資料館や平和祈念公園に行き、戦争のひびき、命の傷、平和の大切さを学びました。もう絶対に戦争を起してはいけないと思いました。「ヒキのヒロシマ」の「人や国は憎んではいけない」というところを読んだとき、私は、長崎には戦争は二度と起してはいけないというのにはあつたけれど、原爆を落としたアメリカは、いいというものはないな、と、私たちの心の中にも戦争はいやだと思つた心はあつたけれど、国を憎む気持ちはない、と気がきました。この世代の人たちの気持ちが受けつかるのだと思います。戦争は起してはいけないものだと改めて思い、平和への感謝が、い、え、う、強くなりました。

Watch language and cherish my friends

ぼくは、この本を読んで、友達を大切にすることは大切なことだと改めて思いました。原爆が落とされ自分の命が第一になる中、おはあさんが赤ちゃんを抱えていたので橋を先におらせて上げてくれたり、協力して焼けこした人を助けていたり、いろいろな所で人を大切にしている所があつました。ぼくは、「かす」とか「死ね」とかをよく使ってしまうけど、この本の言葉を読んで、い、く、と、その、よ、う、な、こ、と、は、い、け、な、い、と、思、い、ま、し、た。な、の、で、こ、れ、か、ら、は、言、わ、な、い、よ、う、に、気、を、付、け、ま、し、た。

I will overcome anything with positive feelings

Illustration drawn by a 12-year-old child

私は、タエコが3歳の時にひいおばあちゃん、^{おば} 芭は、平和とは何かを聞いて、芭は、タエコさんとひいおばあちゃんがこうして、綺麗な空を眺めながら、ゆっくりお話しする時間...、それが平和だと言っている場面が、すごく好きで、そう考えると、今は、戦争の時などに比べて、とても平和です。でも戦争がない今でも、差別があったり、いろいろないじめが世界中であって、苦しんでいる人がたくさんいます。この本を言読むと、どんなつらいことや悲しいことがあっても、前向きな気持ちを持って、何事にも打ち勝っていくという自信や勇気などのアドバイスのようなものを教えてくださって、読んだ人の気持ちを変えさせてくれるようなお話しだったなあと思いました。この本を読めてとても良かったです。

I love the scene, "Don't hate other people no matter what happened, face forward and take walks your happy life!"

My favorite scene is when Taeko and her mother talking and Taeko's mother said that, no matter what happens, you won't hate other people you'll move forward and make your life a happy one!. I like it very much.

(2) Over-the-counter donation

(3) Enlightenment activity

(post and distribute flyers and posters)

In July 2020, many people were damaged by record heavy rain called "2018 Japan floods". Many people still live in temporary housing. About 140,000 people died by the atomic bombing of Hiroshima on August 6, 1945. In the city of Hiroshima, which became a burning source, the women of Hiroshima planted cherry trees and wished for reconstruction and achieved them. Currently, in Hijiya 2 km from the hypocenter is beautiful pink views by 1,300 cherry blossoms. In "Pink.Club Sakura Fundraising Project", which will start on Pink Day on April 4, we will give pink cherry trees to elementary schools and junior high schools in the disaster area and continue to support the reconstruction of the disaster area. Let's support revival together.

2018年は戦後73年目。年々、平和の尊さを自らの体験として次世代に伝える人たちが減っている。こうした中、原爆投下後の広島市の復興を描いた漫画「キセキのヒロシマ」を出版した一般社団法人ピースピースプロジェクト(多田多延子代表)では、学校に漫画を贈呈したり、無料貸し出ししたりしながら、子どもたちの平和教育を推進している。漫画を読んだ広島市の市立中島小6年生と、愛知県半田市の市立半田小5・6年生のメッセージを紹介する。

戦争も経験したことがある。私ですが、読んでみて戦争はおそろしいものだと思えました。生きるため、家族を守るために必死になつて生きのびた人たちのことを思うと、絶対に戦争はおきてほしくないと思えました。

当時の広島の方は、強い心と優しい心を持っていてすごいですね。曾祖母は孫を必死で守っていて優しいなと思えました。戦争もひどいけれど、それ以上に広島の人たちの優しさがすごく伝わりました。

がれきのなかで焼け出された子どもたちに、一銭洋食を食べさせていた女性の姿に、勇気や希望をもらった気がします。副タイトルの「HIROSHIMA PINK」には、ピンクが幸せに満ちているという意味から付けられたことを知り印象的でした。広島の人々のアメリカ人を許す心を見習わなければ、と思いました。

私は原爆のことについて深く考えたことがありませんでした。でも、この本を読んで、同じ日本に住んでいるのだから、もっと知らないやだめだなと思いました。広島の人たちの苦労がどれだけすごかったかということが改めて分かりました。なので、戦争のことを調べ、もっとちゃんと深く知らないやいけないなと思いました。

広島が原爆で被害にあつた人々がどんなことに苦しんだのか、どんなことでもっとちゃんと深く知らないやいけないなと思いました。

原爆考えるきっかけに／広島の人々の優しさに感動

愛知県 半田小5・6年生

広島は原爆を落とされたけど、アメリカをうらんだりせず、前向きに頑張っている。私も頑張りたいな、と思いました。人々も変わらないということも分りました。広島は力強く生きつづけたんだな、と思いました。

わたしはこの本を読んで、まず命がどれだけのいせつなのか分かりました。そして命は、かんたんになくなってしまうもので、一人に一つしかない命をたいせつにしたいなと思いました。

この本で苦しんだ人や死んでしまった人が、どんなに悔しかったかがよく分かりました。そして、今がどんなに幸せなのかも分かりました。戦争はもうおきないでほしいです。ほくも平和のために自分からけんかの種をまかないようにしたいです。

原爆のおそろしさが改めて分かりました。原爆でたくさんの方が亡くなつていきましたが、生き残つていきましたが、生き残つ

一人ひとりの生きよう、元に戻そうという思いが今の広島になつたこと、お好み焼きという広島で有名なものを一銭洋食から生まれたことを、この本から学びました。一人ひとりの人間がせいいつばいの力をだすことで世の中はよくなつていく、と思いました。

相手が苦しんでいたら無視せず、話しかけて助け合つたので今の広島がある！と思いました。カープも、他のチームとはちがいで、広島のみんで育てたのすごく深く愛していると思います。70年間、草も木もはえないといわれていたけど、今の広島は明るく、平和ですばらしいです。

原爆のおそろしさが改めて分かりました。原爆でたくさんの方が亡くなつていきましたが、生き残つていきましたが、生き残つ

がよいと思いました。そして、支え合いながら生きていく姿がすごいなと思えました。どんなことがあっても力を合わせて生きていくことが大切だと思えました。被爆者の支え合いが復興につながっている人が、今もいるんだなということが驚きました。これからも原爆や戦争について考えていきたいと思いました。

原爆のことを私も大人になつたら世界中のいろいろな人に伝えたいと思つた。原爆を知らない人たちに教えようと思つた。なぜなら今の広島がそのよから復興していつたか、この本からたくさん学んだ。カープの誕生も市民たちの努力で復興していったのだということも知つてほしいからです。他県では原爆について勉強しないかもしれません。その人たちに教えてあげたいと思つた。

漫画「キセキのヒロシマ」多田多延子さんが家族の実体験をもとにストーリーを練り、東京の漫画制作会社が作画を担当した。壊滅的な被害を受けた原爆投下後の広島で、多田さんの母親と叔父を、女手一つで育ててきた曾祖母と、戦後の復興を支えてきた女性たちの前向きに生きる姿を描きながら、平和の大切さを伝えている。お好み焼きのルーツや、カープ誕生の史実なども盛り込み、広島市の復興していく過程が時系列で描かれている。漫画は全5巻で各巻ともA5判32ページ。戦後70年に合わせ出版した。広島市内の市立小・中・高校に寄贈している他、全国の学校には無料貸し出しを行っている。英語版も2016年3月に制作した。各巻432円で、5巻セットで2160円。インターネットで販売している。詳細はピースピースプロジェクト(082・253・0528)。

When "The Hiroshima Miracle" (English version) was published in March 2016, it was published in overseas media such as Japan Times and Kyodo News.

Manga seeks to counter gloomy stereotypes Hiroshima survival one of joy, artist says

The horror in post-bombing Hiroshima is captured in black-and-white photos of the city and its beleaguered survivors.

But Taeko Tada, whose mother survived the U.S. atomic bombing at the age of 5, has a different take on the tragedy. Her self-published manga focuses on the happier faces of women who let go of their pain, decided to forgive and helped to rebuild the city.

"The Hiroshima Miracle: Hiroshima is in the Pink!" uses the color pink on its cover to depict the hibakusha experience as one of hope and joy.

"I wanted people to know more of the brighter side of Hiroshima, that this city is in the pink and filled with happiness as a result of efforts by women like my great-grandmother to rebuild the city after the atomic bomb," said Tada, 47, a representative of the Hiroshima-based Peace Piece Project.

"Hiroshima is not just an atomic-bombed city with a sad history but also with a story of rising above the tragedy. I wanted to retell the stories of women who struggled and played key roles in reconstruction efforts and how women forgave and helped each other."

Tada's great-grandmother lost her daughter-in-law at age 56 due to the effects of the atomic bomb and raised Tada's mother alone.

Tada released the manga in Japanese in five booklets last year, to mark 70 years since the end of World War II. It was printed in English in March and will be available on iBooks.

The book was sent to American Ambassador Caroline Kennedy, who in April wrote a letter of thanks. Kennedy said a copy will be sent to Washington.

In her letter, Kennedy said she was "deeply moved" by her visits to Hiroshima and Nagasaki, and said she hopes the visits will "help to advance President (Barack) Obama's goal of realizing a world without nuclear weapons."

Tada said she was "very touching" by Obama's speech during his historic visit Friday to Hiroshima as the first sitting U.S. president to do so, especially since he mentioned a story about forgiveness, a theme that reverberates in her manga.

In his address, Obama spoke of a woman who forgave the pilot who flew the plane that dropped the bomb "because she recognized what she really hated was war itself."

Tada's 172-page book features her great-grandmother's ordeal in the aftermath of the bombing. Tada said she was very young when her great-grandmother died but vividly recalls her inspiring words about how it is better to forgive than to be stuck in the past.

The manga also features the story of a mother who cheered on a struggling baseball team in Hiroshima in honor of her son and a woman who was known as one of the "Hiroshima Maidens" invited to the United States for reconstructive surgery.

Recounting her experience in high school, Tada said she was shocked when, as a volunteer guide for foreign visitors, she was asked if the people in Hiroshima still hated Americans.

"(The) atomic bombing is a serious subject and sometimes discourages people to come here. People feel heavy after touring through the Peace Memorial Park and other atomic bomb-related sites," she said.

She said her manga received positive feedback from atomic bomb survivors, who thanked her for sharing sentiments they could not quite articulate.

"We cannot live in the past. We cannot change what happened," Tada said. Her message is to live toward the future: "This is the Hiroshima I want people to know."

FEATURE: Women's resilience takes the stage in manga of A-bomb survivor's kin

By May Masangkay
HIROSHIMA, May 28, Kyodo

The horrors of the world's first atomic bombing in Hiroshima are often captured in black and white photos of the devastated western Japan city and images of survivors' scars.

But Taeko Tada, whose mother survived the U.S. atomic bombing on Aug. 6, 1945, at the age of 5, has a different take on the tragedy, as her self-published manga focuses on the happier faces of women who let go of their pain, decided to forgive and helped rebuild the city.

In her book entitled "The Hiroshima Miracle: Hiroshima is in the Pink!" Tada, 47, uses the color pink on its cover and title to reflect her desire to depict the atomic-bomb survivors' tales as one that brings hope and joy to people. Pink is her favorite color which represents joy.

Manga shows Hiroshima survival as one of joy

The horror in post-bombing Hiroshima is captured in black-and-white photos of the city and its beleaguered survivors.

But Taeko Tada, whose mother survived the U.S. atomic bombing at the age of 5, has a different take on the tragedy. Her self-published manga focuses on the happier faces of women who let go of their pain, decided to forgive and helped to rebuild the city.

"The Hiroshima Miracle: Hiroshima is in the Pink!" uses the color pink on its cover to depict the hibakusha experience as one of hope and joy.

"I wanted people to know more of the brighter side of Hiroshima, that this city is in the pink and filled with happiness as a result of efforts by women like my great-grandmother to rebuild the city after the atomic bomb," said Tada, 47, a representative of the Hiroshima-based Peace Piece Project.

"Hiroshima is not just an atomic-bombed city with a sad history but also with a story of rising above the tragedy. I wanted to retell the stories of women who struggled and played key roles in reconstruction efforts and how women forgave and helped each other."

Tada's great-grandmother lost her daughter-in-law at age 56 due to the effects of the atomic bomb and raised Tada's mother alone.

Tada released the manga in Japanese in five booklets last year, to mark 70 years since the end of World War II. It was printed in English in March and will be available on iBooks.

The book was sent to American Ambassador Caroline Kennedy, who in April wrote a letter of thanks. Kennedy said a copy will be sent to Washington.

In her letter, Kennedy said she was "deeply moved" by her visits to Hiroshima and Nagasaki, and said she hopes the visits will "help to advance President (Barack) Obama's goal of realizing a world without nuclear weapons."

Tada said she was "very touched" by Obama's speech during his historic visit Friday to Hiroshima as the first sitting U.S. president to do so, especially since he mentioned a story about forgiveness, a theme that reverberates in her manga.
